

Default Question Block

PRESENTED BY: EPSILON SIGMA PHI AND OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION

DEADLINE: October 1, 2024

GOAL: An annual award to recognize a superior Extension educator

CRITERIA: The nominee should be recognized as a superior Extension educator. This award recognizes the importance of teaching, research and service to Extension programming and will serve as an incentive for Extension advancement.

Selection is based on excellence in three categories: teaching, research, and service. Consideration is to be given to:

- Degree of respect by peers and clientele.
- Breadth, scope and depth of accomplishment in relation to position.
- Impact of programs and research.
- Innovation and pertinence of programs and research.

NOMINATIONS: Nominations can be submitted by faculty, staff, clientele or emeritus and should include nomination form citing examples of excellence in nominee's extension teaching, research, and service.

ELIGIBILITY: Any Extension employee who is a current member of Epsilon Sigma Phi will be eligible. The award can be received one time only.

AWARD DESCRIPTION: The award includes a cash award of $1,000 plus the addition of $1,000 to the base salary. The winner will be announced and the award will be formally presented during the Ohio State University Extension Recognition Program.

SCHEDULE AND SELECTION PROCEDURE: Nomination forms and letters must be received by October 15. Scholarships, Grants and Recognition Committee selects top five nominations. Top five nominees submit names of four evaluators and an updated vita to Scholarships, Grants, and Recognition Committee. All materials (nomination form and letter, evaluation letters, and updated vita) are forwarded to Selection Committee named by Epsilon Sigma Phi President and Scholarships, Grants and Recognition Committee Chair. The Selection Committee determines award recipient.
